

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the health of all Americans depends upon educated minds and trained hands; and

WHEREAS, modern medicine would be impossible without the scientific tests performed daily in medical laboratories; and

WHEREAS, laboratory staff include pathologists, medical technologists, histologists, cytotechnologists, microbiologists, medical technicians, laboratory assistants, phlebotomists, medical secretaries, transcriptionists, and laboratory clerical staff; and

WHEREAS, the efforts of these approximately 300,000 highly-trained and dedicated laboratory professionals and 15,000 board-certified pathologists make an invaluable contribution to quality healthcare and save countless lives each day by providing reliable laboratory test results required for the prevention, detection, diagnosis, and treatment of disease; and

WHEREAS, Medical Laboratory Professionals Week is an excellent opportunity to recognize, appreciate and acknowledge the dedicated men and women, the unseen heroes who has a very important role in fighting this global pandemic; and

WHEREAS, laboratory medicine is an honorable profession, which is vital to the high standards of healthcare enjoyed in Washington;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim April 18-24, 2021, as

Medical Laboratory Professionals Week

in Washington, and I encourage all people in our state to join me in this special observance.

Signed this 13th day of April, 2021

Governor Jay Inslee
