

Supervisor- Anatomic Pathology (Corvallis, OR)

Are you looking for a new challenge? Would you like to work for our world class health care organization? Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in Corvallis Oregon is seeking a Supervisor- Anatomic Pathology. Our labs are licensed by the U.S. Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Clinical laboratory Improvement Amendments program and accredited by the College of American Pathologists. We use state-of-the-art testing instrumentation, including Roche, Ventata, Leica, Immucor and Sakura.

Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center, the largest hospital in Linn, Benton and Lincoln counties, offers dozens of medical specialties including comprehensive cancer care, a full-service cardiology and cardiovascular surgery program, a sleep lab, neurosurgery and other regional services. More than 1,700 employees and 200 volunteers keep the medical center running. It is licensed to operate 188 beds and is one of only four 'Level II' trauma centers in the state.

Requirements/Preferences:

1. Bachelor's degree in Biological/Physical sciences or equivalent combination of education and experience required.
2. One (1) of the following required:
 - a. Current ASCP or equivalent Cytotechnologist certification plus three (3) years Cytotechnologist experience.
 - b. Current ASCP or equivalent Histotechnologist certification plus six (6) years Histotechnologist experience.
 - c. Current ASCP or equivalent Histotechnician certification plus six (6) years Histotechnician experience. ASCP or equivalent Histotechnologist certification required within one (1) year of hire.
3. Experience in a leadership role preferred.

Samaritan Health Services offers competitive wages and an excellent benefits package. Relocation assistance available!

To apply online for this position, or for additional information about employment opportunities with Samaritan Health Services, please visit our website at: <http://www.samhealth.org/employment>