

JUNE 12th-14th

SEATTLE, WA

PLUGS[®] Summit 2019

Achieving Alignment: Harmonizing Laboratory Stewardship Programs, Payers, & Patients with Actual Healthcare Trends

Sponsored by the University of Washington School of Medicine, PLUGS[®] & Seattle Children's Hospital Department of Labs

Only two weeks until PLUGS Summit 2019!

Register now!

Register Here

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Category 1 CME accredited laboratory stewardship conference

National experts addressing common adult & pediatric laboratory stewardship issues

Lunchtime poster sessions (CME)

Networking opportunities: welcome reception Wednesday evening, PLUGS Summit banquet Thursday evening, and lots of coffee!

FEATURED SESSIONS

The Magical Formula:

How Courage + Conflict = Collaborative Communication

Infectious Disease Testing: Suplexing the Multiplex

Laboratory Stewardship Interventions and Process Changes: Successes, Failures, and Opportunities

Finding The Balance With Emerging Testing Technologies:
Early Adopters Versus Non-Standard Ordering

How Not To Drown In A Sea Of Genetic Data: Dealing With

Patient Requests And Direct-To-Consumer Tests

The Art of Allergy Testing: Who, When, and Why
Working with IT is killing me: Living through change

The Great Genome Debate: Are we ready for prime time?

A Vision for Standardization and Payment: PLUGS
Laboratory Stewardship Standards

Pre-Conference June 12

RSVP to these events when registering for the Summit

- Behind the scenes with Seattle Children's Stewardship Team.
Attend lab-wide huddle, and lab stewardship committee meeting.
- ARUP Pre-Summit Laboratory Stewardship Workshop
1-5 pm at the Edgewater Hotel
- Welcome reception for all at 6:30 pm!

Are you interested in supporting the Summit?

Email us for more information!

MORE INFORMATION HERE

plugs@seattlechildrens.org

206-987-3361

Copyright © 2012-2019 Seattle Children's Hospital. All rights reserved.

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences