

INTEGRATED HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT

Earn a Bachelor of Applied Science (BAS) Degree

Gain the skills you need to be a leader in healthcare! The BAS degree in Integrated Healthcare Management (BAS-IHCM) provides advanced knowledge and skills in healthcare management, leadership, equity, healthcare systems, health literacy, and so much more. This degree is unique in its interdisciplinary model and focuses on applied skills that prepare graduates to make lasting changes in their field.

WHAT DO I NEED BEFORE APPLYING?

Our students come from varied allied and behavioral health backgrounds. The following prerequisites are required for our applicants:

- ENGL& 101 - English Composition (or equivalent) with a 2.0 grade or higher
- 15 credits of general education with a 1.0 grade or higher per course
- 25 credits of proficiency coursework with a 2.0 grade or higher per course

Proficiency coursework can come from a variety of fields, including: patient care, pharmacy, medical assisting, dental assisting, clinical lab assisting, nursing, physical therapy assisting, radiology, surgical technology, addiction studies, and mental health. To check your eligibility, please email us at ihcm@edmonds.edu.

FIND OUT MORE

Email: ihcm@edmonds.edu
edmonds.edu/ihcm

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Clinic Supervisor or Manager
- Health Services Director
- Health Care Manager
- Care Coordination/Navigation
- Lead Clinical Lab Assistant
- Instructors/Educator

POTENTIAL MASTER'S DEGREES FOR BAS-IHCM GRADUATES INCLUDE:

- Master of Business Administration
- Master of Healthcare Administration
- Master of Public Health
- Master of Social Work

EDMONDS
COLLEGE